Remarks and Suggestions

- a. Before the Bible reading please pray according to Psalm 119; 18 -19 and believe God's promise in Jeremiah 33:3
- b. Remember the Holy Spirit is your teacher.
- c. Preferably read your 20 chapters at one sitting early morning. Short breaks of a few minutes in between help. If you cannot read at one sitting read ten chapters in the morning and the rest at night
- d. Whatever the Holy Spirit speaks to you from your reading (maybe just a couple of verses) please meditate on. As you lie down to sleep at night let your mind be occupied by these verses.
- d. Buy a new notebook and write down everything what the Holy Spirit speaks to you.
- e. Do not make this exercise a burden but ENJOY it by realizing you are having fellowship with God
- f. One does not read the scriptures to just know the scriptures but one reads it to KNOW GOD through the scriptures.
